NOTE VERBALE DATED 8 FEBRUARY 1999 FROM THE PERMANENT OBSERVER MISSION OF SWITZERLAND TO THE UNITED NATIONS ADDRESSED TO THE CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE

The Permanent Observer Mission of Switzerland to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Chairman of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 864 (1993) and, with reference to his note verbale dated 21 July 1998, has the honour to inform him that on 25 November 1998 the Swiss Federal Council adopted an ordinance providing for the autonomous implementation of the measures set out in Security Council resolutions 864 (1993), 1127 (1997) and 1173 (1998).

While the measures contained in resolutions 864 (1993) and 1127 (1997) were in essence already covered by existing Swiss legislation, the extension of the measures taken to the areas of trade and finance by resolution 1173 (1998) made the adoption of a specific ordinance necessary. The ordinance entered into force on 26 November 1998.

NOTE VERBALE DATED 5 FEBRUARY 1999 FROM THE PERMANENT MISSION OF BELGIUM TO THE UNITED NATIONS ADDRESSED TO THE CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE

The Permanent Mission of Belgium to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Chairman of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 864 (1993) concerning the situation in Angola and has the honour to inform him of the measures Belgium has taken to implement the provisions of paragraphs 11 and 12 of Security Council resolution 1173 (1998).

On 3 July 1998 the European Union adopted a common position on restrictive measures against the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola (UNITA). The common position was implemented by a European Union regulation adopted by the Council of the European Union on 28 July 1998. This regulation is legally binding in its entirety and is directly applicable under Belgian domestic law.

At the national level, Belgium has taken the necessary internal measures to implement Security Council resolution 1173 (1998), namely:

Reinforcing the existing arrangements for monitoring diamond imports, for which an import licence and a certificate of origin from the Angolan Government are required;

Implementation of a licensing system for the export or transit shipment to Angola of:

- Equipment for use in the mining industry and associated services;
- Vehicles or motor boats or spare parts.

In addition, regulations have been enacted to freeze funds and other financial resources, particularly funds deriving from property belonging to UNITA as an organization, to its officials or to adult members of their immediate families, as defined in paragraph 11 of Security Council resolution 1127 (1997).

Other administrative measures have been taken by the competent authorities with a view to implementing these provisions.

The Permanent Mission of Belgium to the United Nations would be grateful if the Chairman of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 864 (1993) concerning the situation in Angola could have the foregoing paragraphs circulated as a document of the Security Council.

The text of this executive order is found in the Federal Register dated 20 August 1998. This executive order blocks all property and interests in property that are in the United States, that hereafter come within the United States, or that are or hereafter come within the possession or control of United States persons, of UNITA, or of those senior officials of UNITA, or adult members of their immediate families, who are designated pursuant to the order. (b) An earlier executive order, which became effective on 15 December 1997, had implemented the provisions of Security Council resolutions 1127 (1997) and 1130 (1997) in the United States;

(c) In a letter to the United States Congress dated 23 October 1998, President Clinton reported the details of these two executive orders. He also reported details of the sanctions-implementing activities of the United States Department of the Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control, including the imposition of UNITA sanctions regulations. That letter and the relevant regulations are attached for the information of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 864 (1993).

The United States intends to provide supplemental reports to the Committee as circumstances warrant.
